

In the early 1980s, a new light shined in Chicago... Then, a flame was lit in Detroit. We carry that torch into a new era; the 21st will be a century of deepness. When a gap is bridged; when great forces come together across a sea of differences it is called a summit; when Altered Moods Recordings conspires with Mixomat Recordings, truly-madly, Mike Bishop and many deep house artists and contributors from around the globe, it is called Deep Summit.

Deep Summit '08 brought us to Germany, birthplace of Estimulo and Marco Nega, where we played on both sides of a now non-existent wall. Now we come back for Deep Summit '09... to bring deepness home, to the people who comb the ocean floor and come up refreshed.

BRING YOUR SOUL, YOUR SPIRIT,
AND YOUR WILL TO GROOVE. WE
WILL BRING THE DEEPNESS
